Joyce Bailey

Joyce Bailey received a Master of Education degree from Louisiana State University Shreveport and has been in the teaching profession for over 34 years. She has been in the real estate profession since the mid-80's and has worked as an agent, broker, appraiser and educator. While in Louisiana, Joyce served as a State Director of the Louisiana REALTORS® Association, as a Trustee on the Board of the Louisiana Real Estate Education Foundation, and on the Board of Directors of the Shreveport/

Bossier Board of REALTORS®. She has served on and chaired numerous real estate, appraisal and educational committees both locally and on the state level and is a founding member of the Georgia Association of Professional Appraisers, serving as President for the past two years.

Joe Kennedy, ABR, ASR, CBR, C-REC

Joe has been involved in real estate education since 1977. During his real estate career, he has served as director of several of Georgia's prominent real estate education providers. Joe is a Past President of the Georgia Real Estate Educators Association, as well as the Region 5 Past President of the National Real Estate Educators Association. He remains active in both his real estate practice and in education and firmly believes, "One must be active in the industry to become not only an effective educator, but an effective mentor." Joe holds numerous professional designations and is the founder of the Accredited Seller Representative (ASR) designation.
